

Cathedral of the Sacred Heart,
(Laurel Street),
Richmond, Va.

NO. 36.

CATHEDRAL OF THE SACRED HEART
(LAUREL STREET) RICHMOND, VA.

This splendid edifice, erected at a cost of over $300,000 was the gift of Thomas F. Ryan. It was consecrated in the Fall of 1906 with impressive ceremonies. Situated in the heart of the residential section, overlooking Monroe Park, its symmetrical columns, graceful towers, and lofty dome command general admiration. In the rear of the building, and connected with it by a cloistered walk is the episcopal residence of the Bishop of the Diocese of Virginia.
